Knit A Square Day

Many thanks to all who helped in any way at the 'Knit a Square Day'. I'm not sure of the number of squares knitted on the day, but in all, with those brought on the day and those knitted we have about 600 squares!! It takes 36 to make a blanket. I'll leave you to do the maths! If anyone would like to help sew the blankets, please let me know. Contributions of more squares always welcome! June Curtis

Olga Wright's 100th Birthday

A BIG thank you to everyone who made Olga's special day such a memorable occasion. She was overwhelmed and overjoyed by the turnout of her friends in the church and all the other people who came along. Particular thanks go to Sonia and her team for the tea and lovely cakes and to Geoff and Jenny for helping to make her feel like a real Queen! Nigel can vouch for how much the day meant to her and sends his heartfelt thanks too.

Olga and Nigel

From the Church Library

Interested in the story of Methodism? Our library has lots on Wesley and, in particular (and for the real enthusiast). Henry Rack's Reasonable Enthusiast: John Wesley and the Rise of Methodism, possibly still the most applauded treatment of Wesley against the background of his times. Peter C

Red Line for Gaza

The Methodist Relief & Development Fund 'All We Can' have joined forces with the 'Red Line for Gaza' campaign, urging the public to write to their MP and ask them to do everything they can to end the atrocities in Gaza as famine is closing in, hospitals lie in ruins and life-saving aid is being held back. By emailing our MP you would be helping to keep up the pressure on those in power. The link to send an already composed message to our MP, it's as simple as that, is:- www.redlineforgaza.org.uk Alan Withington
