Holiday Club Meeting Tomorrow

A reminder that there is a short meeting on Monday 29th June in Church starting promptly at 6.15pm so we finish in time for Keyworth Choir to have their rehearsal. The meeting is for those who have said they can help or if anyone is interested in finding out more about it. Rebecca B

Thank You

Gwenda and Alan would like to say thank you so much for all the thoughts, care and prayers shown to them over recent days. They are both recovering well and taking things steadily. They are very grateful to belong to such a loving church family...Helen F.

Rainbows Group

At this church we have a group of Rainbows who meet on a Thursday evening. It has been running for some time but unfortunately the lady who runs it is stepping down soon. They are trying to find a new leader and wonder if there is anyone in the Methodist community who would be interested in helping. It could be an admin role which might help a leader and doesn't require someone to be there every week. If you could help or would like further information, please contact Bernice Pettifer on keyworthguiding@gmail.com. Graham P

Bags of Blessings

Thank you all who have donated items for the Hygiene Hub, they were very gratefully received when I took them last week. They are now looking for book donations for children for ages 9 and above. Any donations, please place them in box outside my office – thank you all. Rebecca B

Keyworth Choir Summer Concert

The Choir are performing their Concert here in the church on Saturday 11th July at 7.30 p.m. Tickets are £12 and you can get them from myself at church, or by ringing me on 07771 852230.

From the Church Library

The name of William Edwin Robert Sangster (1900-1960) is one of the biggest of twentieth century Methodism. Our church library has a biography of Sangster (Snr.) written by his son, Paul. Peter C

Thank you to all who have supported this effort but unfortunately, I won't be able to take more strips due to the need to download an app! Luckily, I was allowed to leave the considerable quantity that Jeff squashed into the Boots box!! Margie
